

MAKE RELATIONSHIPS POSSIBLE

LOVE KIDS? WANT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE?

You may be the Program Director we need!

We are looking for Program Directors to help champion one-on-one mentoring relationships for elementary students at our local public school. This role is all about bringing encouragement, support, and love to mentors and students each week.

Will you consider serving as a Kids Hope USA co-director?

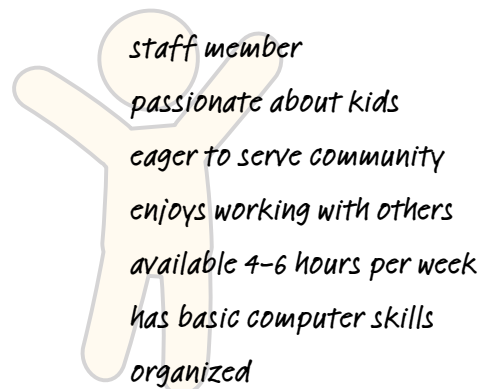

KIDS HOPE USA SUPPORTS YOU

As Program Director, you'll team up with a dedicated Kids Hope USA coach as you move through training and get started in this meaningful role and continue to lead a thriving program.

In this role, you'll:

- Support and encourage mentors who meet weekly with students
- Ensure the church upholds the core commitments of the program
- Help match selected students with caring, consistent adults
- Be a connector, cheerleader, and steady presence

WHO THRIVES AS A DIRECTOR?

LEARN MORE

Let's talk! Becoming a Program Director is a powerful way to invest in kids, support mentors, and strengthen your local community—one student at a time.

Walking together in one-on-one mentoring relationships